

Lent

During Lent we spend time focussing on our dependency on God and how that relates to the world around us. We have plenty of different opportunities to help us do this. Why not try something new? Don't forget to book in if requested; why not offer to help serve refreshments.

Prefer a good read in Lent? Why not read it as a homegroup? Saying Yes to Life: The Archbishop of Canterbury's Lent Book 2020

Holy Habits :We return to complete the final three Holy Habits of Fellowship, Sharing Resources and Making New Disciples. Can I encourage you during the week that follows the sermon to meet with a friend/ homegroup and discuss the following questions over a coffee / after a meal. Sheri

Sharing Resources 16th February: Thinking about our church family what do you notice? How are you sharing the resources that God has given you with the church family? If you haven't reviewed your giving to church recently, please do so in light of this week's sermon.

Making New Disciples 23rd February: To whom could you be a blessing to today? Within the Great Commission (Matt 28 v 16-20) there is a call to 'Go' - where do you 'Go' in the week, how could you be a blessing in that place? Who will you invite to 'Come and See?'
